Customers Must Maintain Clear Access to Water Meters

The Lakehurst field staff has been having trouble locating water meter pits due to homeowners landscaping over them, including, in some cases, concrete. It is the responsibility of the property owner to maintain access to the cast iron lid that covers the meter pit. The inability to read a meter could result in an inaccurate bill and a disturbance to your landscaping.

Employee Spot Lite

Our featured employee, Kim Hayes has been employed with Lakehurst since August 2018. Kim is a member of our office team and you may have spoken with her on the phone or at the counter for assistance. She brings many years of customer service experience and enjoys helping the district's customers. Although not a native, Kim has lived in Colorado since 1986. She has raised two children and enjoys her free time reading, visiting with her family and friends, walking and hiking when the weather permits, and listening to music.

Lakehurst Welcomes New Board Member

Keith Francis joined the Lakehurst Water and Sanitation District board in September of 2021. He was born and raised in Waterloo, Iowa, attending the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, IA, graduating with a B.S. in Geology in 1974. During this interim being called up with the military draft, Keith joined the U.S. Marine Corps, and after 2 years, was honorably discharged in 1974. Soon after getting married, Keith took a job with the U.S. Dept. of Defense, Defense Hydrographic Mapping Agency, in Suitland, Maryland as a Cartographer. During his employment, he was awarded long term training, and attended the University of Michigan's Horace Rackham graduate school in Ann Arbor, MI in 1979. In just one year he achieved a Master of Science degree in Remote Sensing (satellite imaging). In 1980 he took a position as Physical Scientist (GIS/mapping) with the U.S. Bureau of Land Management, in Colorado at the Denver Federal Center. He retired in 2011 with over 37 years Federal service.

Keith lives with his wife, a retired DPS teacher, in Morrison; has three adult children and two grandchildren. Keith's hobby has been a soccer referee for youth and high school, retiring recently after 38 years as a USSF State Emeritus grade, and certification and experience as a United States Soccer Federation referee instructor, assessor, and assignor. He enjoys retirement, and as an avid horticulturist, received his Colorado Master Gardener certification, and enjoys gardening and landscaping.

Board Member Changes

Lakehurst bid goodbye to long time Board member Mitch Gerstenkorn in January 2022 when he moved out of the district after serving for 11 years, most recently as Treasurer. Thank you, Mitch for all your years of service!

Dave Bane, former Board President, retired from the Board in August 2021 after 25 years of service. Thank you, Dave for many years of service.
